PENINSULA SPEAKER SERIES • 2013-2014

Bob Woodward

September 11, 2013
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

The greatest investigative reporter of our time and two time Pulitzer Prize winner, Woodward provides a behind-the-scenes look at the inner workings of government, and the role of leadership. An experienced observer, he analyzes the most important issues of the day sharing timely insights into today's current state of affairs at home and abroad.

Gwen Ifill

October 9, 2013
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

A calm voice in the chaotic world of news and rhetoric, Ifill is known for reporting the substance of stories and events that really make a difference. Recipient of the George Foster Peabody Award, her clear voice and articulate commentary on complex world affairs and issues have made her one of today's most respected journalists.

Leon Panetta

November 6, 2013
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

For over 40 years, Panetta has served California and the US in public service, most recently as CIA Director and Defense Secretary under Pres. Obama. He is known for his commitment to civil rights and the environment, founded the Leon & Sylvia Panetta Institute for Public Policy, and has been presented with more than a dozen awards for service and honorary degrees.

Steve Wozniak

December 4, 2013
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

The technical "brains" behind Apple and the designer of the first personal computer, Wozniak has credentials spanning three decades and continues to change our world today. Personally invested in making the world a better place on a global and local level, Wozniak is dedicated to making education and technology functionally and financially accessible to all.

Platon

January 15, 2014
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

A gifted communicator and storyteller, Platon shares the poignant and mesmerizing stories behind his photography, connecting deeply to the humanity of his subjects. His work with Human Rights Watch celebrates those fighting for equality and justice where suppressed by political forces, and is the subject of spellbinding tales that leave audiences wanting more.

Doris Kearns Goodwin

February 12, 2014
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

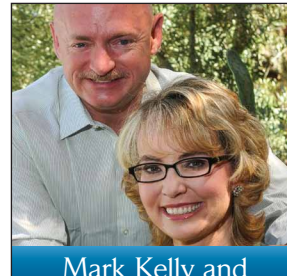

Pulitzer Prize winner Goodwin is recognized as the Dean of Presidential historians, and the screen adaptation of her Lincoln biography won an Oscar. With deft wit and an uncanny ability to weave stories that put you "right in the room" as history occurs, she is the person most turned to for keen historical perspective on political and current events.

Charles Best

March 5, 2014
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Inspired to found DonorsChoose.org, an award-winning nonprofit that enables people to donate directly to specific projects at public schools, while teaching at a Bronx public high school, Best has thrice been named by Fortune to its "40 under 40 hottest rising stars in business". Today more than half of America's public schools have posted projects on the site.

Mark Kelly and Gabrielle Giffords

April 2, 2014
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Since the attempted assassination of former US Congresswoman Giffords, the inspiring story of hope, resilience and policy-changing efforts she shares with husband Mark Kelly, has captivated our nation. A hero in his own right, Kelly is a celebrated four-time American astronaut, retired US Navy Captain, best-selling author, and experienced combat naval aviator.
