PENINSULA SPEAKER SERIES • 2015-2016

Ray Kurzweil

September 30, 2015
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

A leading inventor, thinker, author and futurist with 30 years of accurate predictions, Ray Kurzweil is a director of engineering at Google in machine intelligence and one of the world's top entrepreneurs. He's been called "the restless genius", "the ultimate thinking machine", "rightful heir to Thomas Edison", and one of "16 revolutionaries who made America".

Diana Nyad

October 26, 2015
Monday, 8:00 pm

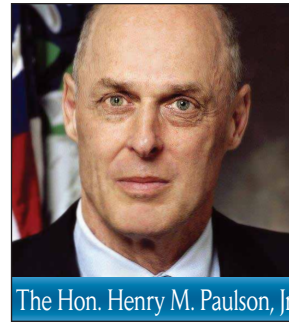

One of the world's greatest long-distance swimmers, International Women's Sports Hall of Famer Diana Nyad is the first to swim from Cuba to Florida without a shark cage, and has set numerous other records. She later gained prominence in sports broadcasting, became an author and stage performer, and today motivates audiences of all ages to follow their dreams.

Jill Bolte Taylor

November 11, 2015
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

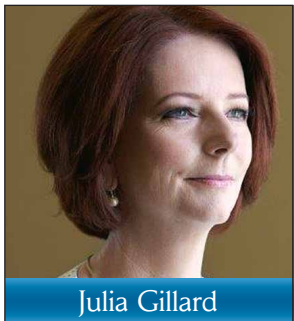

A brilliant neuroanatomist, Jill Bolte Taylor suffered a stroke and had to teach herself to function again. Today she addresses the importance of the brain to behavior, and its similarity to organizational structure. One of TIME magazine's "100 Most Influential People", her best-selling memoir is My Stroke of Insight: A Brain Scientist's Personal Journey.

The Hon. Henry M. Paulson, Jr

December 2, 2015
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

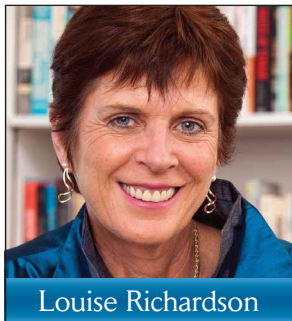

An evening with Henry Paulson in a lively interview with Fortune Magazine editor Geoff Colvin about Paulson's roles in events shaping our nation: as Treasury Secretary during one of the most tumultuous eras in U.S. economics, leading Goldman Sachs to exponential growth as Chairman/CEO, and helping end U.S. involvement in Vietnam from the Pentagon and White House.

Julia Gillard

January 20, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

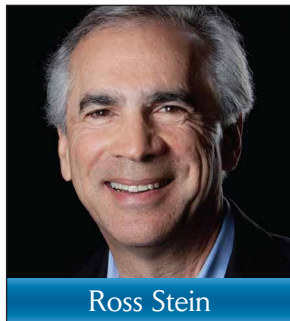

Julia Gillard, the 27th Prime Minister of Australia, is the first woman to serve in that role and was central to the successful management of Australia's economy during the global financial crisis. Her nation-changing policies put her on Forbes list of the "World's Most Powerful Women" in 2012 and 2013. Today her focus is worldwide education advancement.

Louise Richardson

February 10, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

A foremost expert and groundbreaking author on terrorism and counter-terrorism, Louise Richardson is the first female Principal and Vice-Chancellor of Univ. of St. Andrews. She is renowned for her research on international security with emphasis on terrorist movements, graduate and undergraduate teaching and leading organizational change in higher education.

Ross Stein

March 2, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

One of the world's foremost earthquake scientists, Ross Stein studies how earthquakes interact by the transfer of stress. He cofounded and is Science Board Chair of the Geophysical Earthquake Model (GEM), a public-private partnership building a seismic risk model for the world and is widely known for his writings, lectures and documentary appearances.

Malcolm Gladwell

April 6, 2016
Wednesday, 8:00 pm

Best selling author and journalist, Malcolm Gladwell is considered one of today's most influential writers and extraordinary thinkers. He is the author of five New York Times bestsellers, including The Tipping Point, Blink and Outliers, and has been named one of the 100 most influential people by TIME magazine and one of the Foreign Policy's Top Global Thinkers.
